1. NATIONAL TRUST HOLIDAY COTTAGES

The National Trust operate over 400 cottages across Wales, Northern Ireland and England. These come in all shapes and sizes, and every one is brimming with character and has been lovingly restored to reflect the original feel.

As every property is on National Trust land, visitors enjoy the space to relax in truly unbelievable locations – from looking out over rugged coastlines and watching deer roam across your front garden, to stepping out of your front door into tree-lined vistas and immaculate gardens. So, getting the interior right is essential in creating the perfect retreat.

Tracey Mortimore, Holidays Manager for The National Trust, Arlington, North Cornwall, North Devon region shares the design approach they took on two newly refurbished cottages.

STEPPER VIEW - CORNWALL NATIONAL TRUST HOLIDAY COTTAGES

You feel instantly relaxed when arriving at Stepper View, beautifully located on the headland overlooking Polzeath in North Cornwall.

‘For Stepper View our inspiration was drawn from the cottage’s coastal location on Pentire Head, surrounded by rolling fields down to the wide, sandy bay and open sea. We used a neutral palette to form the backdrop and added highlight paint on feature walls. Texture and colour were woven into the design using Saxon Teal-Indigo, Saxon Denim and Sanderson Simi Aegan fabric. The marine hues of the seascape, enjoyed from every window, thread through into each room creating a welcoming ambience to this pretty cottage’, explains Tracey.

COMBE PARK LODGE - DEVON NATIONAL TRUST HOLIDAY COTTAGES

Combe Park Lodge nestles close to the river which runs down to Watersmeet where a short walk will bring you to the Trust’s historic tea garden and old fishing lodge deep in a wooded valley. Completely refurbished by National Trust in 2015/16, Tracey describes the process, ‘a traditional theme was used to reflect the ambience of this cosy retreat. Tradition and warmth create a timeless theme, so using Sanderson Chestnut tree and Sanderson Squirrels and Hedgehogs, we gave a modern, country feel to this characterful and very beautiful, Edwardian cottage.’

There’s a sense of occasion when you stay with the National Trust; from gatehouses and farmhouses, to lighthouses and castles, so choosing the right interior is key. Sanderson Design Group Contract, is the official home of six of the finest British brands, Archive, Clarke & Clarke, Harlequin, Morris & Co., Sanderson, Scion and Zoffany, providing ultimate design choice in uncompromising contract specifications.

BARNETT HILL HOTEL - GUILDFORD, SURREY THE ALEXANDER HOTELS GROUP

Barnett Hill, a Queen Anne style Mansion dating back to 1905, sits on its stunning hill top location with views of 26 acres of lovingly maintained gardens and woodland within an area of outstanding natural beauty in Surrey. The perfect hotel for a countryside escape.

Peter and Deborah Hinchcliffe, joint Managing Directors bought Barnett Hill in October 2016. Attracted by the gorgeous grade II listed building, and its beautiful gardens set in the Surrey hills, this latest addition fits in well with the already impressive Alexander Hotels Group.

Deborah shared her first impressions and the approach they took on this remarkable refurbishment, 'when we purchased the hotel, it was looking quite sad and uncared for. I think all the public rooms were painted yellow, despite having stunning mouldings and plaster features as well as an impressive stair case, it just looked neglected and institutional.

Choosing the right colour paint was a big decision as it needed to sit well with the grade II listing style, be durable and bring the public areas back to life with a smart 21st century look. Sanderson Crystal Grey achieved all of this and more, the colour compliments the whole look and guest love it.'

Sanderson Design Group Contract were able to provide the design choice needed on a project of this scale, in uncompromising contract specifications.

The bedroom required a complete remodel and new look, the Callista Collection by Clarissa Hulse for Harlequin was chosen. Deborah explains why, 'it seemed the perfect range for a lot of the bedrooms. The cow parsley and grass designs using vibrant energising colours were just the perfect collection, it sat well with the garden theme and magnificent range of colours you find in our herbaceous and hot garden, ensure that all the bedrooms had a memorable look. I also loved the Cestino design with the multitude of colour and fun, yet very smart looking, this was used on arm chairs.'

3. EXCLUSIVE HOTELS

Exclusive Hotels create truly exceptional experiences. Each of their 5-star venues incorporate beautifully curated bedrooms and suites for the perfect break, making memories to treasure.

Monia Allegretti of Archinterio explains the inspiration behind the interior spaces she has created, ‘Each hotel has amazing gardens and landscapes, so it’s almost recreating the outside, inside of the room. I feel hotel bedrooms should be different from your everyday home, as we are creating interiors to remember.

I believe colour creates happiness, so aim to create a different atmosphere in each room by using a splash of colours. It’s also important to create harmony, which is achieved by balancing different patterns, colours and textures.’ With Style Library Contract, you have ultimate design choice in uncompromising contract specifications.
